Get in some fitness this Thanksgiving before the feasting with this fun Austin tradition!

Our 28th ThunderCloud Subs Turkey Trot will feature:

5-mile run (timed and untimed),
1-mile walk, and a Kids K
Live music
Children's activities
Post-run snacks
Raffle and runner prizes

ThunderCloud Subs donates all of the proceeds from the Turkey Trot directly to Caritas of Austin, a local non-profit that's dedicated to preventing and ending homelessness for people in Greater Austin.

Last year's donation of $325,000 brings the cumulative total raised for Caritas to nearly $3.5 million!

What to do over Thanksgiving Weekend

Chuy's Children Giving to Children Parade

Saturday, November 24, 2018
11am (it's approximately 1 hour long)

Starts at the State Capitol at 11th and Congress, moving south on Congress all the way to Cesar Chavez, ending just north of the bridge. Click here for a parade map.

Benefiting Operation Blue Santa so Bring New, Unwrapped Toys to Donate! At a designated time during the Parade Procession, all units will stop to collect the toys. Santa's Helpers will line the parade route and help spectators give their toy. All toys will be distributed by the Operation Blue Santa Program to another child just in time for the holidays.

Highlights

Giant inflatable balloons, festive holiday floats, famous children's characters, spectacular marching bands, cool classic cars and Santa!

Want to Get Involved?

We have opportunities for you to volunteer for the parade, participate in the parade, or become a parade sponsor. Please click on the links below to find out more information.

Mozart's Coffee Roasters at Oyster Landing,
3825 Lake Austin Blvd.

The Light Show is Free—Mozart's gift to Austin

Mozart's Christmas Light Show has become an annual tradition for many Austinites.

Every year, we decorate the deck with over 1 million LED lights and set up a show to our favorite holiday tunes.

Admission is free and there is no assigned seating, so bring the whole crew and enjoy!
