Did you know that Austin has secret bars?

The Whisper Room

Congress Ave.

Inspired by the Prohibition Era, The Whisper Room at The InterContinental Stephen F. Austin hotel on Congress Avenue, is a 10-seat, reservation-only bar found within the hotel's existing restaurant behind a red velvet curtain. The 1920s-themed bar serves modern takes on tried-and-true classics like the Old Fashioned and Sazerac, made tableside on a 1930s Aldo Tura bar cart.

How to get in: Reservations can be made by calling the hotel at 512-721-4230. The lounge is open Monday to Friday from 3 p.m. to midnight, Saturday from noon to 2 a.m. and Sunday from noon to 11 p.m.

Milonga Room

East Sixth

At Buenos Aires Café, a majorly date-worthy Argentinian eatery, you can now enjoy a nightcap and a flamenco performance at the secret basement bar, Milonga Room. The menu includes tapas and wine, but the spotlight is on amaro and fernet-focused cocktails, as these herbal spirits are major players in Argentinian drinking culture.

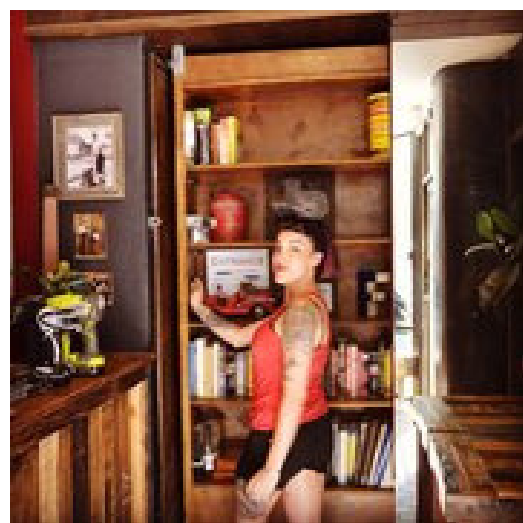

How to get in: Walk around the back of Buenos Aires Café, and knock on the blue door Emerald City style. Reservations are recommended to guarantee entry.

Firehouse Lounge

Downtown

The classic hostel takes a Harry Potter-ish turn at Firehouse, where a secret bar is accessible only through a sliding bookshelf in the hostel lobby. Inside, you'll find well-crafted cocktails, live performances, and -- because it's still a hostel -- probably a little debauchery, all in a warm, inviting atmosphere. (No word on the butterbeer, though.)

How to get in: Head to the bookshelf in the hostel's reception area, and slide it open.

TIEP End-of-semester Recognition Ceremony is Wednesday, 12/12, 12:30 in the Student Lounge.

Please feel free to invite your friends and family for the ceremony and cupcakes!
