

THE WEEKENDER

This Week's Weather and Events

September 14, 2018

Texas Intensive English Program
1103 W. 24th Street, Austin, Texas 78705, USA

The Weekender is also available online and on Facebook.
<http://tiec.org/tiep/pdf/weekender/>
<http://www.facebook.com/TexasIntensiveEnglish>

Fri, 9/14

83° | 71°
Thunderstorms

Sat, 9/15

84° | 75°
Thunderstorms

Sun, 9/16

88° | 74°
Partly sunny

Feminine Grandeur Art Exhibit

The crafty and clever Whitney Turetzky alters antique photographs, using historic iconography, photo transfers, acrylic paint, embroidery thread, digital modification, and more to create a visual story in which women are glorified and magnified into spiritual superstars!

Elisabet Ney Museum, 304 E. 44th St.

UT Soccer

UT VS UTRGV, Friday, 6pm

UT VS Northern Colorado, Sunday, 5pm

Mike A. Meyers Stadium, 707 Clyde Littlefield Dr.
$5-8 tickets

UT Football

UT VS USC, Saturday, 7pm

Reckless Kelly & the Peterson Brothers perform on the LBJ Lawn before the game

Raw Paw: Grand Opening

A new outlet offering a curation of local and international art goods, comics, and zines – and of course a big ol' group art show in the gallery – and this here's the opening party, with DJ sets by Corduroi and DJ Ella Ella, drinks by JuiceLand and Tito's- this thing is gonna be rockin'.

Sat., Sept. 15, 6pm-12mid

Raw Paw

Atlantis: A Puppet Opera

A real "Keep Austin Weird" production- Ethos and the Vortex present this revival of their theatrical spectacle that reveals a mythic world of warring religious zealots obsessed with world domination and nonrenewable energy.

Through Sept. 29. Thu.-Sun., 8pm. $15-35

---

Where to See Movies in Aus-

1. When people think of movies in Austin, they immediately think of Alamo Drafthouse Cinema. Founded in 1997, their Alamo Drafthouse Ritz location on Sixth Street in the heart of downtown is a staple for all things film. They have since expanded to six locations in Austin and 29 locations across America. Enjoy a cold, local beer and delicious meal in-theater, as an added bonus for your movie going pleasure.

2. Located just steps from the University of Texas campus lies the Bullock IMAX® and Texas Spirit Theater. The Bullock Museum offers the only IMAX® with Laser film experience in Texas, and the six-story wide by 84-foot tall screen is the biggest in the state.

3. Violet Crown Cinema is another well known venue for movies in Austin. Located in the heart of the 2nd Street District, this independent theater is as close to the beautiful waters of Lady Bird Lake as it is to the nightlife offerings on Sixth Street. Violet Crown screens the best independent and international films, as well as documentaries and more. Insider the restaurant, favorite offerings include the house Crown Fries with black truffle salt, wagyu beef hot dogs and the Antonelli's cheese plates.

4. If you desire a more high end movie outing, look no further than iPic Theaters. Located at The Domain shopping area in North Austin, this plush theater is known for having top notch service and some of the most comfortable recliners in Austin. Premium level guests can bring their food from the lounge into the theater and eat on the convenient swivel tables, while Premium-Plus guests enjoy complimentary popcorn, pillows, blankets and personal servers.

