

TIEP Pathway to a U.S. University Degree

Texas Intensive English Program (TIEP) students can be on a guaranteed pathway to an American university degree through TIEP's collaboration with numerous U.S. universities and community colleges.

Study at TIEP

- You will need English. Successfully complete TIEP's English for Academic Purposes Program or University Express Program, and many of TIEP's academic partners will waive their TOEFL score requirement for admission.

Study at a
Community
College

- Save money. Most community colleges offer international students a high quality education for two years of undergraduate study at a much lower cost than four-year colleges and universities.

Study at a
Partner
University

- Guaranteed transfer of academic credits from community colleges, such as Austin Community College, to universities in Texas and other states for a bachelor's degree.
